Help Aid to Storm Sufferers.

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEXAS,
September 20, 1919.

Hondo Chapter American Red Cross,
Hondo, Texas:

Accept his expression of our deep gratitude for your splendid offer in our time of dire need. It will not be necessary for us to draw on your chapter funds as the Division has used its entire fund at our disposal.

MILDRED SEATON, Chairman.

The above telegram was in reply to the letter instructing the Red Cross relief committee to draw on the Hondo chapter for $200.00. As the reply states that the Red Cross Division has used its entire fund at its disposal it is presumed that the chief officers of the Division will draw on the Hondo chapter for the amount should the contribution be needed, but so far as we are informed no draft has yet come in.
The people of Hondo deeply sympathize with the people of the storm stricken coast cities, and stand ready to do their utmost in their behalf, and only the hard fortune that has attended our people the past four years is responsible for the offer not being larger than it was. The people of this section have been hard hit the past few years, and many are having struggle of their lives in trying to keep the wolf from the door on account of short crops and the rapaciousness of profiteering hogs.

In addition to the above offer we understand the Masonic fraternity transmitted $25.00 to the Corpus Christi relief committee.

Schweers-Bader.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bader at 4:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when their winsome daughter, Miss Mary, became the bride of Mr. Leo
L. Schweers, Rev. Father Pallanche, pastor of the Catholic Church, officiating.

The groom is the manly young son of Mr. John H. Schweers, is a native of Medina county, and is universally esteemed. He is a member of the Southern Pacific railroad depot force, and will undoubtedly make good in his chosen work.

The bride is one of Medina county's charming daughters, has a host of admirers and warm personal friends who rejoice with her in her happiness.

The newly wedded couple left on the evening train for New Orleans and other points east, after which they will return and make their home in Hondo.

The Anvil Herald, in connection with a host of other friends, joins in congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Rolf Frerichs' Funeral.

One of the largest funeral processions seen in Hondo in many a day followed the remains of Rolf Frerichs to their last resting place in the cemetery last Saturday afternoon. People from all parts of the county were here to pay a last tribute of respect to the dead young soldier who laid down his life on the altar of his country.

The body was carried to the Lutheran Church from the home of deceased's parents where appropriate services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Falkenberg; from there the procession again took up the line of march to the silent city of the dead.
Arriving there the Rev. E. A. F. Hannemann of Fredericksburg, a visiting Lutheran minister, pronounced a touching funeral oration, the reverend gentleman speaking in English.

After the singing of appropriate hymns the body was consigned to Mother Earth, and another victim of the madness of men was left to his eternal rest.

Six of deceased's cousins, all comrades-in-arms of the dead young hero, all of whom saw overseas service, acted as pall-bearers, to wit: George Schuehle, Rollie Schuehle, Oscar Schuehle, Rollie Bless, Andrew Bless and Andrew Oefinger.

The hearts of our people go out in sympathy to the stricken parents, but while deeply grieved over the loss of their first born, it must be a satisfaction to them to know that he was cast in a sufficiently heroic mould to bear his breast to his country's foes in the hour of its danger. He died the death of a soldier and he will long be held in affectionate remembrance by the people of Hondo.

Miss Josephine Moehring.

The people of Hondo were shocked last Tuesday morning when it became known that the Death Angel had visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Moehring and claimed the spirit of their only daughter, Miss Josephine, for her Heavenly Father.

Deceased was just entering lovely young womanhood, being 18 years and 26 days old at the time of her passing.
Some three weeks ago she was stricken with that most pernicious of all sicknesses, typhoid fever, and despite all that medical skill and kindly nursing could suggest her gentle spirit took its flight at 5:00 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The funeral occurred at 3:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, her body being placed in the Hondo cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. A. Falkenberg, pastor of the Lutheran Church.
Rollie Schuehle, Oscar Schuehle,
George Schuehle, Rollie Bless, Andrew Bless and Bailey Rogers acting as pall bearers.

Besides a host of friends deceased is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
John Moehring, and two brothers, Edward and Oscar Moehring, all of Medina county.

May a benign Heavenly Father comfort the stricken family in their great bereavement is the wish of all our people.

Body of Mrs. C. D. Conley Identified.

A letter from Mr. C. D. Conley states that Mrs. Etta Conley, daughter of Rev. and Mr. J. T. Horger of Hondo, was identified and buried at Odum, Texas, about 15 miles northwest of Corpus Christi. It is said that the sheriff at Sinton has the ring she wore.
Nothing of the whereabouts of her baby girl, Mildred, is known to date.

Rev. Horger also learned that his daughter with her child in her arms, was seen drifting on some wreckage on the bay waters by a party of neighbors of whom only one person survived.

Notice to the Public.

Where humanity weaves
"Gilt you burn"
Light and welcome
A subtle transformation
Where home fires burn,
Looking into the future
In glory's fires.
The instrument.

By W. Alexander Imlay

Weaving eternal figure eights through the streets of a great city in the southwest a Saturday evening crowd shifted in a human phantasmagoria under brilliant arc lights. It was early winter. In the fashionable district well clad men wore new overcoats and silken mufflers. In the lower end of the city men pulled thin summer coats tightly about their necks.

Women beating their way along the thoroughfares felt the chilling wind on sleazy silk clad ankles. Children of the slums hopped swiftly along, homeward bound from errands seeking the warmth of tenements, for their chilled bare feet.

A gutter rat stood in the doorway of a cheap restaurant. The odor of frying onions and steak tantalized his nostrils. It was for the warm air that came through the open door that he tarried.

"Gilt, you burn," he heard. A second later the toe of a tall man's boot had forced him into the street.

"No one wants a down and outer," the sniffling thing moaned as he slunk away.

Women of the street passed him with a leer. A "down and outer" was the last thing on earth they sought. What they wanted was money for food and warm quarters. The "rat" could supply neither.

A swinging light in the street ahead drew his attention. Upon coming close to it he spelled out "W-E-L-C-O-M-E."

"Ha! Ha!" he laughed cynically, but he entered.

Next morning the "rat" was no longer a rat. He had been fed and clothed. He had been bathed and given a bed. Hope burned high in his heart.

Through the offices of his new friends he was given work. It is useless to follow him for, of course, as in all articles of this kind, the "rat" made good.

Beaten and cuffed; scorned and unwanted he had at last come to his own.

Five years later we find the "rat" without a semblance of the thing of the gutter which had been clinging about him.

In a pleasant room, with a flower in the window, we find him reading the daily paper. A woman speaking in soft tones is lulling a child to rest.

Outside the wind howls. A cow bawls in the stable at the rear of the lot on which the cozy home is built.

The one time down and outer is moving up. He has a wife and child. He owns a home. He has a cow.

"We must make some steps to issue our child the surroundings of Christianity," the wife tells the one time thing of the gutter, after the child is sound asleep in its crib.

"Well, what shall we do about it?" he replies.

The woman places her cheek next to his and whispers. The honest citizen is at peace. He nods his head in acquiescence.

Sunday comes with bright sparkling morning light. The honest citizen and his wife dress in their best and start for church.

It is a church of brick and stone. Glazed windows break early morning light into thousands of prismatic crystals.

The minister takes his text—"Even as you do unto others."

His sonorous voice rings out in full periods. The one time child of the slums is entranced.

A great organ peels its message of life and love—

The honest citizen and his wife walk forward.

They join the church. No one knows he has been a thing of the streets and the cinderpath. That has been forgotten. But—

Many are brought to American churches each year who took their first upward step with the Salvation Army backing their effort.

House Indorses S. A. Campaign.

"Those of us who have been fortunate enough to see something of the work of the Salvation Army with the American troops have been made proud by the devotion and self-sacrifice of the workers connected with your organization. I congratulate you and through you your associates and I wish you the best of fortune in the continuance of your splendid work."—E. M. House.

Many Cared for by Salvation Army. 661,218 men and women were cared for last year by the Salvation Army. 5,179 mothers were given outings. 21,651 children were sent to the seashore. In medical aid alone the Salvation Army cared for 293,151 persons.

PURPLE AND GOLD

Adorned Armies Which Persian Kings Led to War.

Spectacular Indeed Must Have Been the March of Mighty Hosts Before the Days of Business-like Fighting.

Warfare was a spectacular, as well as a bloody enterprise, in the days of antiquity. Plain khaki and simple businesslike accoutrements would never have suited the ancient Persian soldiers.

Silver altars, surrounded by priests, chanting sacred songs, were first in line of march. They were followed by 305 youths dressed in purple garments. A chariot dedicated to the sun was drawn by snow-white horses, led by grooms wearing white garments and carrying golden wands.

Ten chariots, embossed with gold and silver preceded the cavalry of 12 nations, dressed in their various costumes and carrying their peculiar arms.

Then came the Persian immortals, 10,000 in number, wearing golden chains and robes embroidered with gold and glittering with precious stones. Following at a short distance came 15,000 nobles, relatives of the king, dressed in garments wonderfully wrought.

A company of spearmen preceded the king. He rode in an imposing chariot, and wore robes of surpassing magnificence, and a costly miter on his head. By his side walked 200 of his most noble kinsmen. Ten thousand warriors, bearing spears with shafts of silver tipped by heads of gold, followed the royal chariot of Xerxes. The king's horses, 40 in number, with 30,000 footmen, ended the procession.

At some distance followed the mother and wife of the king in chariots, accompanied by their ladies on horseback. Fifteen cars carried the king's children, their tutors and nurses, and 600 camels, guarded by archers, bore the royal treasury. The friends and relatives of the ladies followed with the cooks and servants. Light-armed troops brought up the rear.

When a king in those days looked upon his troops and saw their strength and splendor, it is no wonder he felt proud and wished to lead them to battle. Such an army was not meant to stay at home, where only their countrymen could see them. Other nations would know how powerful a king he was. So he and his followers marched away, and wars for conquest began.

Peoples were forced to give themselves up to a life of war, either for conquest or defense, and the great highways, which peace would have dedicated to commerce and prosperity, became military roads over which war took its cruel way.

Details Carried to Absurdity.

Trivial details not infrequently become the pivot of momentous decisions, in which cases an element of absurdity is supplied by the breadth of the contrast. A case in point arises in the discussion among English litterateurs concerning Shakespeare's alleged "hand" in the play of "Sir Thomas More," in which one expert occupies almost a column of small type in the literary supplement of the Times of London in describing the construction of the letter B as found in one of Shakespeare's autographic documents. The imposing array of warlike and nautical terms in the modest letter, such as keel, baseline, ram, forelimb and boundary line, may astonish many who have been accustomed to form it with comparative ease, while the division of the letter into sections and subsections by this savant for purposes of discussion endows the old scrivener's art with unexpected dignity.

Matter of Priority.

While the people of Denmark are glorying in the antiquity of their national flag, the "Dannebrog," which claims the honor of seniority among all the national flags, and are commemorating its origin in the thirteenth century, Belgian and German patriots are scouring the Middle Ages on a mission of vital import to their respective flags. The new German state has given indications of adopting for its colors black, yellow and red, disposed horizontally. This has aroused protests in Belgium, which claims priority in precisely the same colors, similarly disposed, and patriotic societies are said to be forming to take action to prevent Germany's adoption of them. The Belgian claims are based on the colors of the princes of Flanders and Brabant in the thirteenth century, while the German case is said to rest on the use of the colors in question by the ancient Germanic empire.

What's in a Name.

Naming a plant or flower after a celebrity is a delicate compliment, and one that no doubt at times adds something to the market value. But there are exceptions. That beautiful variety of the lobelia, for instance, known as "Emperor William," would perhaps hold up its imperial head a little more proudly just now if it had had a more fortunate christening.

Stray thoughts on these lines may have been flickering in the mind of a vendor in a London market-place as a likely looking buyer, while examining a box of the old favorite, asked what variety it was. Without deranging the muscle of an eyelid the coster (and she was a "lady," too) replied: "Douglas 'Aig! Four-and-a-tanner a box."

How Word "Booze" Originated.

In the Pennsylvania museum, Memorial hall in Fairmount park, Philadelphia, can be seen a collection of highly decorated old bottles, and the one which attracts most attention is the log cabin whisky bottle, molded in the shape of a house. On one end is the inscription "120 Walnut street, Philadelphia," together with the date, which is "1840," on the front of the roof. On the back is stamped in bold letters, "E. G. Booz's old cabin whisky."

This erstwhile vendor of spirituous liquor is said to be responsible for the use in America of the slang appellation "booze," by which all kinds of intoxicating drinks are known today. Although some etymologists give it as being derived from the Hindustani word "boozan," meaning to drink, while others claim it is from the Dutch "buizen" to tipple. The term was good English in the fourteenth century.

COAST TO COAST
U. S. FOR LEAGUE

MILLIONS ACCLAIM WILSON AS HE SPEEDS ACROSS
THE LAND.

FEW ASK FOR CHANGES

Majority Feel That President's Guidance Should Be Held—He Regards Pact As Sure to Come Soon.

(By Mt. Clemens News Bureau)

Aboard President Wilson's Special Train—From the Capital at Washington to the far Pacific coast the President of the United States has journeyed on the most unusual expedition ever undertaken by a chief executive of the nation.

To discuss national questions, many presidents have toured the land; but Mr. Wilson is laying before America a question which affects the whole world—the question of whether or not we are to join in the League of Nations; whether we are to forget our former isolation and share with the other peoples of the earth the responsibilities of maintaining civilization and preventing, as he says we can do, future warfare.

Between the capital and the coast the president made fifteen speeches and half a dozen brief talks. All of 100,000 fellow citizens listened to him. Several millions had the chance to see him, and apparently everyone wanted to see him, from those who thronged the streets of the cities and towns where he stopped, to those who came to the railside or stood at little flag stations in remote places, knowing their only reward could be a fleeting glimpse and a wave of the hand.

He has met and talked to all types of citizens—to men big in the business, financial and professional worlds, to farmers and mechanical workers, to Indians and cowboys and foreign-born herders and rangers, to soldiers and to mothers who lost soldier-sons in the late war.

What do they all tell him? unambiguously they say they want peace definitely settled, they want no more wars, they want the League of Nations, and most of the American people, it may be fairly said, tell the President they want the League just as it is, without the reservations or amendments which certain senators have insisted upon. The majority of citizens say to those who interview them on this tour:

"Woodrow Wilson guided us rightly before and during the war with Germany. We entered that war, everyone agrees, to end all wars. He says the league can do that. We want to do that, so let us keep on trusting him and get the league into operation as soon as possible. Forget politics."

Most Americans encountered on the tour have forgotten politics. Republican Governors and Mayors have introduced the President to his audience; the Major part of the local committees which have met him have been Republicans. They have all said: "We are nothing but Americans, Mr. President."

Mr. Wilson's arguments for the league, briefly summarized, are those: There can be no peace, either now or in the future, without it. There can only be a regrouping of nations and a new "Balance of Power," which is certain to lead to war. There can be no war in the future, with the league in existence, because no single nation would defy the united rest of mankind, and if it did, it could be brought to terms by an economic boycott, and without the use of arms.

There can be no reduction in the cost of living until the league is established, for nations will not go ahead with peace time production until they know that peace is definitely assured and that production of war material is no longer necessary.

There can be wonderful prosperity, with the league in existence, for relations of labor and capital all over the world will be made closer and more friendly, and the worker will receive a fairer share of what he produces.

These declaration of the president, logically and eloquently put, have left his hearers thinking and thinking deeply. And then Mr. Wilson has pointed out, the people themselves, as differentiated from senators and politicians, seem to want just what the president wants, which is America for leadership.

Quite as unusual as the purpose of the cross country tour is the manner in which it is being carried out and the completeness of the arrangements on the nine car train which is bearing the party.

At the rear is the private car Mayflower, occupied by the President and Mrs. Wilson. Next is a compartment car for the secretary Tumulty. Admiral Grayson, Mr. Wilson's Physician, four stenographers, the chief executive clerk and seven secret service men. Beyond are three compartment cars which house twenty-one correspondents, five movie men, and a telegraphic and a railroad expert. Then there is a dinner, a club car, and two baggage cars, one of them converted into a business office. The train was exactly on time at every stop between Washington and the Coast.

PRINCE ALBERT

YOU can't help cutting loose joy's remarks every time you flush your smokespot with Prince Albert—it hits you so fair and square. It's a scuttle full of jimmy pipe and cigarette makin's sunshine and as satisfying as it is delightful every hour of the twenty-four!

It's never too late to hop into the Prince Albert pleasure-pasture! For, P. A. is trigger-ready to give you more tobacco fun than you ever had in your smokecareer. That's because it has the quality.

Quick as you know Prince Albert you'll write it down that P. A. did not bite your tongue or parch your throat. And, it never will! For, our exclusive patented process cuts out bite and parch. Try it for what ails your tongue!

Tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

Value of Uncooked Food.

Man cannot digest and assimilate the mineral elements in rock; hence it is necessary for him to get the elements for structural work from fruits and vegetables, in their fresh, uncooked state; for cooking destroys the chemistry—the chemical synthesis with albumin is lost.—J. H. Tilden, M. D.

Paste for Brown Leather.

An excellent paste for brown leather is made of two ounces of soft soap, four ounces of beeswax, two ounces of turpentine and half an ounce of neat's foot oil. Melt soap, wax and oil together, then remove from fire and add the turpentine. Stir well. When cold apply with a brush.

Floor Bleach.

If an unfilled or undressed hardwood floor becomes gray apply a solution of two ounces of oxalic acid dissolved in just enough water to wet it well all over. Let stand fifteen or twenty minutes; then rinse in cold water and proceed to wash without suds as usual.

You Do More Work.

You are more ambitious and you get more enjoyment out of everything when your blood is in good condition. Impurities in the blood have a very depressing effect on the system, causing weakness, laziness, nervousness and sickness.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is not a patent medicine, it is simply IRON and QUININE suspended in Syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs Quinine to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. These reliable tonic properties never fail to drive out impurities in the blood.

The Strength-Creating Power of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC has made it the favorite tonic in thousands of homes. More than thirty-five years ago, folks would ride a long distance to get GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC when a member of their family had Malaria or needed a body-building, strength-giving tonic. The formula is just the same today, and you can get it from any drug store. 60c per bottle.

Mysterious Light.

Even more mysterious than the gegenschein, the faint moonlight glow in the sky exactly opposite the sun, is a still less familiar luminous feature of the night. This is a shifting haze sometimes visible when the moon is absent. Prof. E. E. Barnard of the University of Chicago finds that it differs from ordinary auroral phenomena in appearance in all parts of the sky, and that it is not probably any form of cirrus or cirro-stratus cloud. It seems to be more or less self-luminous, the source of its light being unknown. It may be quite noticeable as a streaky luminous haze, sometimes appears in broad sheets, and seems sometimes to be absent for several years, though at other times there is a great deal of it. It drifts easterly over the stars, remaining visible with a faint, steady light for a considerable time.

Carrying Alaska Mail.

It takes the dog-sled mail to get through. Alaskan huskies may not start out at 80 miles an hour, like Atlantic liners, but they always arrive, though terrific blizzards may intervene between one post office and the next. In the last two and a half months they completed their 1,800-mile route—the length of the Mackenzie river—from Fort McMurray in Alberta to the terminus, 40 miles south of the Arctic coast, and if they came in 15 days late they did not once turn back.—New York Post.

Real Music

It is only real music which appeals to the soul. Real music means different things to different people.

—To some it is restful and soothing.

—To others it is a source of inspiration.

—To all it is an essential.

Then to enjoy music as music really is, you have to have in your home the artists themselves, or

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

to give you their RE-CREATED voices exactly as you would hear them on the opera stage or the concert platform.

Two thousand music critics have failed to detect the slightest difference between original music and the New Edison's RE-CREATION of it. The New Edison, therefore, is the only instrument that can bring real music into your home.

An Appreciated Letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Frerich a few days ago received the letter below from the Lutheran minister who rendered spiritual consolation to their gallant soldier boy in the Fort Bayard sanitarium. The letter indicates that Rolf realized that the end was approaching, that he was being overpowered by the relentless foe, and was making preparations for the journey through the dark portals. Rolf's parents feel deeply grateful to all who in any way rendered aid and comfort to him in his long illness.

Following is the letter:

FT. BAYARD, NEW MEXICO.
Sept. 13th, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Frerichs.

Dear Friends:—Last Thursday I made my first call at this Hospital. I was informed that a Lutheran boy was looking for a Lutheran pastor. I lost no time in seeing him. It was your son. He was very glad to see me. The next day he desired the Lord's Supper. He confessed his sins, and his faith in Christ Jesus as his only Savior, and that he received in, with and under the Blessed Bread and Wine, Christ's body and blood given and shed for the remission of his sins, and this heavenly food was to assure him that Christ truly loved him and had forgiven all his sins. Whereupon I administered communion unto him, exhorting him to remain in this faith.

Now this morning I heard that he had departed. It was about five o'clock yesterday, when I gave Lord's Supper unto him. I had no idea that he would pass away so soon. On my first visit to him, I left a small Lutheran prayer-book with him. And when going through that part of the ward a little later, I noticed that he was reading in it. And the Captain told me yesterday that when he was making his rounds he asked your son "what can I do for you?" Whereupon your son replied: "Please hand me the prayer-book." No doubt the good Lord and Shepherd of our souls will not have forsaken him in the hour when his soul departed from his body.

I fully sympathize with you. May the good Lord be with you in your bereavement and comfort you

With kind greetings,
REV. E. G. A. WACHHOLZ,

Her hopes were high, her heart was young,
The note of joy was on her tongue,
Her foot was firm upon the road,
Her courage was great beneath the load,
When she was called away by God.

But though she went away so soon
Ere yet the day had reached the noon,
Her hand had planted many a flower,
Her heart had gladdened many an hour,
When she was called away by God.

Her heart was pure and free from guile;
Bright as the sunshine was her smile;
And friendship fair failed not to come.
To grace the circle of her home,—
For these she thanked her God.

God bless her parents, and her home;
God grant their feet may never roam;
God grant some day they all may come
To meet their daughter in their home,—
And meet their daughter's God.

SALVATION ARMY PLANS COMPLETE FOR HOME DRIVE

Texas Campaign for Home Service Fund of $600,000 Fully Organized.

SOLDIERS TO ASSIST ON SPEAKERS BUREAU

Workers Who Saw Oversea Service to Show Gratitude By Giving Help

Dallas, Texas.—Fully organized in all of the Texas counties in the southwestern home service zone for the Salvation Army the state corps of organization men are going back over the field in an effort to solidify their work, according to Herbert B. Ehler, southwestern director of finance.

The campaign will open September 29. It will be preceded by a week devoted to Salvation Army work. Governor Hobby has set the entire week aside by executive proclamation. In this week special appeals will be made to the public by the Salvation Army through speakers and soldiers' quartets.

Overseas Men to Talk

The speakers bureau has made arrangements for a number of service men and women to talk in the largest cities of the state. Overseas heroes will be routed throughout the entire southwest. All of the five overseas Salvation Army officers who are available will be assigned work.

"Pa" and "Ma" Burdick will be available for a limited number of engagements. Lieutenant Colonel George Wood, commander of the southwestern district announces. No strenuous campaign will be outlined for them, however, because of their age and the inconvenience and discomforts of travel at this season of the year.

When the bowels feel uncomfortable and you miss the exhilarating feeling that always follows a copious morning operation, a dose of HERBINE will set you right in a couple of hours. If taken at bedtime you get its beneficial effect after breakfast next day. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Fighting Men Will Help in Campaigns

Waco, Texas.—Fighters of the American expeditionary force are offering their services daily for the Salvation Army's $600,000 home service drive in Texas which begins September 29, according to R. E. Logsdon state campaign director, who has been arranging a number of novel campaign features with the soldiers.

Twenty-five men who have seen overseas service volunteered to help at Waco, Tuesday. The offer was accepted by E. A. White who was selected chairman for the city and county drive. The men will be used as solicitors among the most able to give, Mr. White announced.

Swellings of the flesh caused by inflammation, cold, fractures of the bone, rheumatism, neuritis or rheumatism can be relieved by applying BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It should be well rubbed in over the part affected. Its great healing and penetrating power eases the pain, reduces the swelling and restores natural conditions. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Legion Offers Service

J. M. Pollard, post commander of the El Paso American Legion tendered the services of the post to Major Richard P. Burges, district and city chairman at El Paso. Burges is a member of the post and a veteran of foreign service.

"You may rest assured that the legion will be glad to cooperate with you," Post Commander Pollard wrote Mr. Burges. "Advise us how we may be of service. The Salvation Army at a time not yet forgotten 'direct service' to many of us and we eagerly accept the opportunity to repay, in a small measure at least, the debt we owe."

Freestone county was organized Tuesday with E. P. St. Clair of Teague as chairman. Comanche county is rapidly perfecting an organization under the leadership of E. P. Woodruff of Comanche.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

GONE FOR GOOD.

Results That Last Are What Appeal to Hondo People.

Kidney sufferers in Hondo want more than temporary relief. They want results that last—Results like Mr. Hay tells about. His was a thorough test. Four years is a long time. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test and stood it well.

Why experiment with an untried medicine?

People here in Hondo have shown the way.

Read the story of J. A. Hay, farmer. He says: "Some years ago, when I was working on the street cars the constant standing which the work necessitated resulted in pains across my back and kidneys. I had always heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of so I decided to try them. Doan's did me a world of good, entirely removing the trouble." (Statement given May 29, 1915).

On May 13, 1919 Mr. Hay added: "I think just as much of Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't had occasion to use them since they cured me in 1915."

Many Cities Demand Corps Organization

Demands for corps of Salvation Army workers are being made almost daily upon Lieutenant Colonel George Wood, commander of the southwestern division of the Salvation Army. Colonel Wood is now preparing his forces for the home service campaign which will open September 29.

Many cities that have never had forces of Salvation Army workers are planning to erect homes for corps. Wichita Falls, Texarkana, Port Arthur and Waco fall into this class. In each city a determined campaign will be made for building funds. In addition, each of the present twenty four corps cities will build for their workers.

Wood is Pleased

"I am very much pleased with the result of our efforts to meet this demand for expansion," Lieutenant Colonel Wood said in speaking to state campaigners at Dallas recently. "Our greatest difficulty is not in getting money but in getting the necessary workers."

"The end of the war, however, is greatly decreasing the tenseness of our working corps situation. I fully expect that by drafts on big eastern corps and with graduates from our training schools, we shall be able to care for the demand without serious difficulty."

Many Meals Are Given Away

In addition to its many other acts of mercy and compassion the Salvation Army last year gave away 12, 123,643 meals at maternity hospitals and rescue homes. It supplied 285, 735 beds.

Outspoken Athenian.

More than twenty-three hundred years ago a young Athenian, speaking of his wife, said to Socrates: "When I saw that she had powder on her face to make it whiter and rouge to make it redder, and that she wore high-heeled shoes to appear taller, I told her it was as dishonorable for her to try to deceive me about her beauty as for me to try to deceive her about my property. I added that, although her arts might impose upon others, they could not impose upon me, who saw her at all times."—Youth's Companion.

Satisfaction in Doing Right.

Imagination is the father and mother of trouble when we let it run loose in a time of stress. But in the end the will and the heart are what determine our fate. After all, when we do right we have some satisfaction even if we suffer. But if we do nothing but drift along we have not even the satisfaction of knowing we deserve to come out right.

New Catholic Seminary to be Built in San Antonio.

A campaign to raise $100,000 for the erection of an ecclesiastical seminary in San Antonio, for training of the clergy of the Catholic Church, will be held during the last three weeks of October, complete plans for carrying the project through having been formed by Rt. Rev. Arthur J. Drossaerts, bishop of the diocese of which San Antonio is the see.

It is explained that the ranks of the clergy of Texas have hitherto been recruited to a great extent from Europe but that experience has shown the need of a native clergy. The establishment of the seminary is believed to be an effective means of bringing more men born on American soil and thoroughly acquainted with American ideas and customs into the clergy.

The building will be located on the grounds of the first Mission, facing the church in such a way that the visitors, entering the grounds from the South Loop, will get a front view of both structures. It will be of brick with a stucco exterior finished in white and in the form of the letter U, the base at Mitchell Street.

Plans Harmonize With Mission.

Plans prepared by a San Antonio architect show a design which will be in keeping with the appearance of the mission. The main floor will contain class rooms, a store room, the kitchen, priests' dining rooms, students' refectory and general students' quarters.

On the second floor will be a chapel, furnished with stalls instead of pews, and allowing room for three altars; a vestry and priests' sitting room; the rector's apartments and private rooms, four suites for the clerical teachers and a dozen cells for the senior students. A separate building will shelter the community of nuns, who will attend to the domestic affairs of the seminary.

Modern heating and ventilating systems will be installed and plans have been drawn with a view of securing comfort in both summer and winter.

Plans for the campaign were formed after many conferences between Bishop Drossaerts and his clergy. Committees to cover every phase of the campaign work were appointed last week at a joint meeting of the clergy and laity of the city.

A number of speakers have been appointed for San Antonio and places outside the city. The advisory board is made up of Bishop Drossaerts, the city pastors and the rural deans of the San Antonio diocese.

Speakers are (for San Antonio) Rev. H. F. Kane, S. S. J., Rev. J. J. Robling, Rev. Peter J. Schmetzer, Rev. P. J. Crane; (outside of city) Very Rev. L. F. Netardus, Bohemian; Rev. A. Heckman, German; Rev. J. Jachtyl, Polish; Rev. Ramon Prat, C. M. F., Spanish.

Despondency.

Sufferers from indigestion are apt to become discouraged and feel that complete recovery is not to be hoped for. No one could make a greater mistake. Hundreds have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and can now eat anything that they crave. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you have not tried them do so at once.

Additional Flood News.

The main canal above the R. R. track at Pearson is reported washed away, so is the flood-gate near Pearson.

The Chicon dam is reported a thing of the past and the resulting extraordinary flood washed away the bridge over the county road on the S. A. and Pearsall road and the Chicon bridge of the I. & G. N. R. R. near Natalia, and damaged about one half of a mile of track, heading off the north bound 'bull weevil' for several hours. The south side approach to flume 11 on the main canal was washed away, and to prevent the washing away of the whole hillside a section was taken out, creating a beautiful waterfall at the highest point that could be seen for miles.—Lacoste Ledger.

Just What She Needed.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. "They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."

"A college graduate wants a job."

"We have a place open that he might fill," replied the self-made man. "How many degrees has he?"

Just So.

"I thought you said that little shrimp, Snipson, was a model husband?"

"So he is."

"Why, he mistreats his 200-pound wife shamefully."

"I mean a model husband in the sense that he's a small imitation of the real thing."

No Gift.

"I wonder," said the young man, "what place history will give me."

"History never gives any man a place," responded the older man. "You've got to earn it."

Complimented.

A newly appointed page in one of the county courts, after wide-eyed watching and open-earedly listening to the plea to the jury of a lawyer noted for his great bellowing voice and wild gesticulations, asked the bailiff:

"Say, what's that feller doin', arguin' the case?"

Natural Mistake.

"Is this a jungle scene?" asked the slightly intoxicated gentleman in a movie show.

"No," replied his friend. "You are looking at the picture through the foliage of a woman's hat."

Much to Say.

"Mrs. Neighbor talked with my wife an hour today over the phone."

"Probably they hadn't talked together for some time."

"Not since yesterday."

DELCO-LIGHT was designed and built by men who were raised in farm homes—who experienced the discomforts and inconveniences of farm life—and who set out deliberately years ago to develop an electric plant that would provide city advantages for rural communities.

They were the same men whose engineering talent had made DELCO Starting, Lighting and Ignition Equipment for automobiles the standard of the world—

They knew electricity—and they knew the needs and limitations of farm life—

They knew that an electric plant to give service in a farm home must be simple, so that it would not get out of order and require complicated repairs—

It must be easily operated and require little attention—

It must be very economical in operation—

It must be built to stand hard usage and it must last indefinitely—

WOULDN'T TAKE A FORTUNE FOR IT.

All Her Friends Come To See What Tanlac Did For Mrs. Lynch.

"I wouldn't take a fortune for the good Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. A. F. Lynch, of 164 Central St., Galesburg, Ill., recently.

"I suffered from stomach trouble for about five years," she continued, "and hadn't been able to eat a regular meal for several years and during this time I suffered awfully with cramps, dizzy spells and terrible throbbing headaches. I was often troubled with gas on my stomach that bloated me up so I could hardly breathe. I also suffered with my kidneys and was so constipated that my condition alarmed me at times, for I just didn't seem to be able to get any relief from this trouble. I was never free from a dull, aching pain across the small of my back and got so weak and rundown that I was laid up for as much as a week at a time."

"Tanalac has done me a wonderful amount of good; I eat three meals a day now and am never troubled with indigestion, bloating or headaches. My kidneys don't worry me and I am not constipated now. My condition has improved so I can do all my housework. I am perfectly well in every way and people who have heard about my recovery come to see if all they hear is true, and it don't take me long to convince them of the facts."
